

Collingwood Trunk Dresser

The Collingwood dresser evolved from the design of our luxurious trunks. Clad in rich European leather with hand burnished wood trim and darkened brass hardware, the Collingwood dresser is entirely made of components fashioned in-house from the finest raw materials and takes a three person team a month to make. The builder/engineer, the upholster and the finisher work together to ensure that every aspect of the piece is masterfully made. The Collingwood dresser features six large drawers with undermounted glides, concealed drawer pulls that match the wood trim and hand-stitched leather clad handles. The top of the trunk can be made of all wood or inset stitched leather.
